

XM Radio is very unique in that it offers Instant Traffic & Weather 24 hours a day seven days a week. XM Radio attempts to keep listeners aware of current situations regarding Traffic and Weather which believe to be a great service. The listeners pay for this service so allow the listeners to decide what they are to hear. XM Radio offers variety and quality that surpasses any local radio station. Only on XM Radio can one find exactly what they want to listen to only when they want to listen to it. This service is paid for by the listeners, so I feel that the listener should determine what they are to hear. Does that not seem fair?
